

Accenture Interview Questions for Freshers

Below is the list of Questions asked in Accenture 1st round of technical telephonic interviews for a Java developer:

1. How to make a List as a Read Only List?
2. Difference between an iterator and a list iterator?
3. What design patterns do you know in Java?
4. What is a Singleton class?
5. Difference between a String builder and a String buffer?
6. How to remove duplicate elements from a list in Java?
7. How to clone objects?
8. What are the methods in object class?
9. What are implicit objects in JSP?
10. How to open a database connection? How the application understand from where the query is to be read?
11. Can you write a query in JSP file or a controller?
12. What is MVC in your application?
13. How to use Log4j logger?
14. What are the log levels?
15. What is Spring bean definition?
16. What is a bean life cycle?
17. What are the Spring bean scopes?
18. What is final keyword in Java?
19. What is a front controller?
20. What is the difference between forward and redirect in Spring MVC?
21. What are servlets?

Hope this helps in the preparation for the interview for Accenture.

Conclusion

When interviewing for a developer position at Accenture, it's essential to have a solid grasp of technical concepts and the ability to communicate effectively. Success depends on both technical knowledge and demonstrating how your skills align with Accenture's environment. Prepare thoroughly and practice your responses to approach the interview with confidence.